Great Meadow Racecourse Stewards' Ruling

Date: May 6, 2017

Ruling # 17-002

Jockey Darren Nagle (DOB 8/27/1987, Permit # 14692) is hereby fined ($500) Five Hundred Dollars, in accordance with 11VAC10-140-240, which reads, "If a horse leaves the prescribed course of a race and jumps any fence or goes around any beacon or other obstacle other than those on the prescribed course, it must turn back and resume the race from the point at which it originally left the prescribed course, or be disqualified. A rider who continues in a race on a horse thus disqualified may be fined, or suspended, or both...". During the running of the second race, on Saturday May 6, 2017, Mr. Nagle allowed his mount TRITON LIGHT to go off course.
