

NSA Official Notices
Tuesday, September 17, 2024

Update from Shawan Downs

The current plan is to run the timber races on the inner irrigated timber course, not the outer loop. In the continued interest of optimizing safety for our equine and human athletes, the timber fences along Shawan Road have been replaced with portable timber fences equipped with breakaway rails set in rubber cups, similar to other jumps that have been introduced to the course over the past few years.