

NSA Official Notices

Friday, September 5, 2025

Aqueduct

Nominations for the $150,000 Lonesome Glory (G1) close Saturday, September 6 with Bill Gallo, 443-553-1882.

Hurdle Trials – Saturday, September 13, 2025

Hurdle Trials to be held at Great Meadow Race Course, The Plains, VA. The entire hurdle course will be set up with the modified north turn replacing the old way of going. This new route through the north turn has been approved by NSA Jockeys and the Chairmen of the NSA's Safety Committee and the Stewards Advisory Committee. Entries will be taken by the NSA office on Monday, September 8th, there is no entry fee. Horses will be grouped by experience and the desire of the trainers for what they are looking to accomplish. A horse ambulance and a human ambulance will be present on the grounds throughout the day.

Post time for first heat: 10:00 AM

Distance to be run: 1 1/8 miles

Contact for entries: Bill Gallo (443) 553-1882

Contact for questions: Al Griffin (540) 219-1400

NSA Jockey Seminar - Wednesday, September 17th

The NSA is teaming up with TGSF to host a seminar for licensed jockeys on Wednesday, Sept 17th. It will be held at the Fair Hill Training Center (Kathy Anderson's vet clinic) in Fair Hill: 288 Training Center Drive, Elkton, MD, 21921. Lunch will be served.

Presenters will include LandSafe owner (and past steeplechase jockey) Danny Warrington, ex-jockey Trevor McCarthy and Total Clarity Wealth Management. Jockeys will also have an opportunity to meet with NSA Stewards in a roundtable discussion of key industry topics.

Please text your intent to attend by Wednesday, September 10th to Rosella (410-920-5431) or Alissa (302-593-6329).

