Virginia Fall Stewards Rulings

Jockey Conor Tierney (CITY LEADER) was fined $1,000 for “dangerous riding” in the first race.

Jockey Stephen Mulqueen was held “blameless” for accidental interference (ACADEMY). However, Mulqueen was fined $250 for a code of conduct Violation while reviewing the first race with the Stewards.

Jockey Niall Prendergast was held blameless after his horse EYE OF GUNFIGHTER went off course after the second fence in the seventh race.